Warranty Procedures

It is the dealer’s responsibility to review warranty information with their customers. When submitting a claim for warranty, the warranty claim form must be completed along with pictures documenting the claim. Any cabinet with a defect must be documented before assembly (if assembled prior to installation). If it is necessary for a sales representative to inspect an issue on a job site, a representative for the dealer must be present as well. In regards to freight damage, it is the receiving party’s responsibility to inspect for damage and note any shortages on the bill of lading provided by the trucking company. All claims need to be submitted within 7 days of receipt.

Initials:

Return Policy

Dealer is responsible for return freight cost and will be assessed a 25% restocking fee. Assembled cabinets will not be accepted. Be sure when receiving orders, each box is inspected and verified to be the correct cabinet ordered.

Initials:
